JOHN MARSHALL LANDS VICTORY

Fork Union, Va., April 18 .- John Marshall High School defeated the Fork Union Academy here to-day by the score of 7 to 5 after a very exciting game. The locals started a batting rally in the ninth with a home run by Cadet Poff, but it came too late. The Richmonders scored in the first and held a lead during the game. The game was marked by some sensa-tional fielding by both sides. John Marshall used three pitchers in the

Colts Leave for Newport News

WORD'S DOUBLE

and Blue in Carolina Series.

Portsmouth, Va., April 18.—Norfolk made it three straights from Portsmouth this afternoon, 2 to 1. "Gunboat" Cochran, Norfolk's navy recruit pitcher, won his own game in the fifth inning, when he lifted the second home run of the season over the fence.

Portsmouth scored its only count in the season over the fence.
Portsmouth scored its only count in the seventh, when Howedell connected for two bases, took third on an error, and scored on Collins's single.

Cochran had the best of the pitching argument with Schwartje, holding the Pirates to five hits, while the Tars hammered Tannehill's pitcher for nine safeties. The score:

Long, for Carolina, was the only other player to get an extra base hit, his being for two sacks. Litchfielder, left fielder for Carolina, played a star outfield, taking every chance, many of which were hard. Shields, for Carolina, was the star fielder of the contest, getting two grounders that appeared impossible. Word, for Virginia, played a fine game at first, and obtained two hits, leading the battle for Virginia.

DOUBLE CARD TO BE OFFERED FANS NEXT SATURDAY

Burns to Meet Maupus, and Con Albright Returns to Tackle Collins.

BY "REFEREE."

A double card will be offered the wrestling fans Saturday night, when Frank Burns will meet at Al Maupus, of Baltimore, and Con Albright will go against Billy Collins. All four of the middleweights are anxious to get another try at the champion, Joe Turner, and the promoters have planned these engagemnnts as a sort of elimination tourney, the final winner to be given one more chance for the belt.

Burns has no excuses to offer for losing to Turner, but he feels that he can best Maupus. Collins and Albright are both well known here, and their ability is recognized. Albright is the man who struck so persistently to Turner's trail, only to lose when the two got together. As an exhibition, these two bouts could hardly be improved upon.

While there may not be the unusual unite there may not be the unusual interest caused by Burns' spectacular arrival, there is the interest born of a desire to watch four clean-limbed and healthy athletes try conclusions and healthy athletes try concusions with each other. Connie Albright may always be depended upon to give a good account of himself. Collins has wrestled Turner on numerous occasions, and, though he has been returned loser in these engagements, he thinks that he is a far better man now than he was when he mat the chamber.

turned loser in these engagements, he thinks that he is a far better man now than he was when he met the champion before.

Maupas and Burns will go to the mat first, the bout beginning promptly at $:30 o'clock. It will be a finish go, best two out of three falls, and as soon as this has been concluded Collins and Albright will go to the mat. Tickets for the engagements will be on sale at the Academy of Muste Wednesday. That there will be a big demand for seats is certain if for no other reason than to witness an exhibition by four of the best middleweight wrestlers in the game to-day.

By the way, Joe Turner has lost his training partner. The partner in this particular case is a black bear. If any one should find the bear, he can secure a reward by returning it to Turner or notifying him at Madison 6079. Turner's home is now on the Broad Street Road.

MONSTER CROWD WILL SEE GAME IN WASHINGTON

Richmond Fans in Large Numbers to Visit Washington on Thursday.

When the train leaves Richmond Thursday for Washington to witness the opening game between the Senators and the Red Sox the largest ex-cursion ever run out of Richmond over the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac, or any other road, for that matter, will be on its way to the na-tion's capitol. Never has interest beom so intense in a baseball game. Since the victorious onslaught of the Climbers upon the citadel of their enemies during the recent trip, Richmond fans have grown well-nigh frantic. Axided to this is the fact that either Walter Johnson or Joe Boehling will pitch the game, with a possibility that Wyatt Ayers will jump in at the last moment.

Grandstand tickets for the game are now on raie at many prominent places, while a personal canvass will be made to-morrow. It is hoped that all who to-morrow. It is hoped that all who contemplate going will make their intention known early, for on opening day in Washington every ticket is at a premium, and while Clarke Griffith has been good enough to send 1,100 tickets here to be disposed of, he agreed to do this only on the condition that they would be returned so that he could dispose of them to the hundreds who will be turned away. who will be turned away.
